Is these looming crisis in a society that has traditionally held the elderly in high regard?

We believe a structural problem needs a structural response – older people organize other older people

Organized poor older people become home carers and community health workers and run their own drug stores and advocate local and national governments

and help each other in time of disaster

and prepare for disaster and come to enjoy each other Older people need each other as much as they need the family

Isn't it time to organize community based programs in the whole country?
