

Nelson Kuria

Mr. kuria is an Economist with 33 years' experience in Development finance and Insurance.

He joined The Co-operative Insurance Company of Kenya, now CIC Insurance Group in 1998 and became CEO in 2001.

He is credited with leading the transformation of CIC from a small company to the 2nd largest insurer out of 45 companies in Kenya and the leading co-operative insurer in Africa.

He has been honored with two awards by the president of Kenya for his contribution in co-operative development and was recently given the Life Time Achievement Award for his role in insurance development.

He is the immediate past chairman of the Association of Kenya Insurers and is currently a member of many boards including the International Co-operative & Mutual Insurance Federation (ICMIF) and Co-operative University College of Kenya.