The purpose of the Beth Johnson Foundation (BJF) is to enhance the quality of life of older people and their experiences of ageing through stimulating and facilitating change. . In achieving our mission our aspiration is that as a consequence of our work we make a significant contribution to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Shaping communities in which older people can age well Older people having a voice and being respected for their views and contributions Older people being enabled to access the support and knowledge they need to age well We do this by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Influencing policy and its implementation • Working with individuals, organisations and communities so that they are more effective in the delivery of their services • Developing practice and resources and working in communities • Developing and promoting evidence based practice • Working collaboratively with other organisations 2. Core Values BJF's four core values are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To see ageing as a natural part of life and to stress the importance of focussing on the individual's own experiences and aspirations. Within this we aim to promote the structures and support needed to enable people to exercise choice and control in their lives particularly where they experience disadvantage. To work with others in a manner that is based on trust, openness, sharing, mutual value and personal and organisational integrity. To strive to be an informed organisation, basing work on intelligent and reflective uses of information so that we are creative and innovative in our developmental approaches. In everything we do, to seek to influence and facilitate others to change or refine their approaches to ageing.
What are the programmes and activities of your organization? They must be relevant to the Open-ended Working Group and the country or countries in which they are carried out. ✖
We have three main themes of work: Advocacy. We run a specialist demonstration project on advocacy for people with dementia, host the Older people's Advocacy Alliance for the UK, and are developing an accredited professional supervision training for manager's of advocacy projects. Positive Ageing. We have developed a life course approach to ageing that identifies key transitional points in people's lives and delivers support and intervention to facilitate people in making positive choices. This works with employment, health, personal identity, enagement and voice. The programme is a national model of good practice. Intergenerational practice. We are the lead organisation in the UK for IP having rum the UK Centre for Intergeenrational practice for over ten years and working across the whole of the UK to develop policy and deliver advise, training guidance and development work. We also run the European Map of Intergenerational Learning which is a pan European network We are the UK founders and host for ICIP, the international Consortium for Intergenerational programmes and our international conference last year was held in Singapore.
