ZIVOT 90 is a non-governmental, not-for-profit civil association working with and for older people in the Czech Republic since 1990. Seat of the association is in Prague and we have more than 10.000 members and 3 main branches all over the Czech Republic. The main goal of the association is to create conditions for exchange, storing, dissemination of experiences, knowledge and proficiency regarding older people and we strive for improvement of the quality of life of older people so nobody need to be ashamed for his/her age. Our main programme is one we chose to call "Home is at Home". It is a summary of services which seek to support older people, especially those among them who are lonely and socially disadvantaged, as well as people with disabilities, in their homes, their natural environment. It is a programme for 95% of people over the age of 60. Our organization strives for improvement of the quality of life and contributes by its activity to solving the problems of seniors who can active and meaningful stay on their homes as long as possible and accompany them through the autumn of their life so that nobody need to be ashamed for his age.
