

Tadesse Meskela Gudeta

Mr. Meskela received an agricultural economist BSC from Alemaya college in 1981 and received training course on agricultural cooperative, earning diploma from Japan in 1994 .

He was a farm management expert and team leader, province agricultural office head, zonal cooperative and extension head, Zonal planning and programming head in Harrerge administrative region and cooperative team leader in Oromia regional state ministry of agriculture.

He founded the Oromia coffee farmers cooperative union and was appointed general manager.

He was also the main character of a movie about coffee which is one of the award winning documentaries of 2006.

The movie was screened in Sundance Human rights film festival and to Members of parliaments of United Kingdom and all over the world. It is still on screening.

Mr. Meskela is still currently the general manager of Oromia coffee farmers cooperative union